Chad Mitchell, Chairman
Carl Ford, Vice-Chairman
Jon Barber
Raymond Coltrain
Jim Sides

Gary L. Page, County Manager
Carolyn Athey, Clerk to the Board
John W. Dees, II, County Attorney

Rowan County Board of Commissioners
130 West Innes Street • Salisbury, NC 28144
Telephone 704-216-8180 • FAX 704-216-8195

NOTICE

The North Carolina Department of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (NCDJJDP) anticipates the allocation of Juvenile Crime Prevention Council funds to Rowan County for programs serving delinquent, undisciplined and at-risk youth in the amount of $322,700. These funds require a local match of 30% and will be available for the state fiscal year 2011-2012, beginning on, or after July 1, 2011.

Online Program Applications may be obtained online on the NCDJJDP website at http://www.ncdjjdp.org/jcpc/forms_agreements.html Mail or deliver three (3) original application, plus two (2) copies to the Rowan County Manager's Office at 130 West Innes Street, Salisbury, NC 28144. The deadline for receiving completed applications is March 25, 2011 at 1:00 pm.

The Juvenile Crime Prevention Council (JCPC) having studied the needs of youth in Rowan County hereby publishes this Request for Proposals. The programs should address the following risk factors identified by the JCPC:

1. Individual risk factors: Adjudicated or at risk youth who have peer relationship issues and associate with delinquent youth, have moderate to serious school behavior problems, have substance use or abuse and are in need of assessment and/or treatment.
2. Family risk factors: Adjudicated or at risk youth who have parents who have problems providing adequate levels of supervision to their children.

Programs should address the following concerns as reported in the Needs Assessments for Adjudicated Youth:

1. Peer Domain: Adjudicated or at risk youth who associate with other delinquent youth or who associate with or are gang members.
2. Individual Domain: Adjudicated or at risk youth who have some level of mental health or substance abuse needs, have a history of abuse or neglect or who engage in dangerous sexual behaviors or have sexual offending behaviors.
3. Family Domain: Adjudicated or at risk youth who have parents who are in need of parent/family supervision skills, have a history of domestic conflict, have a criminal history and have family members who abuse alcohol or drugs.
4. School Domain: Adjudicated or at risk youth who have multiple unexcused absences, short or long term suspensions, are expelled or dropped out or have school disciplinary problems.

Equal Opportunity Employer
recycled paper

Based on the JCPC planning process conducted to date, the dispositional options needed in this County have been identified and are listed as the following:

1. Psychological Evaluations
2. Counseling Services (Family and Individual)
3. Substance Abuse Assessment and Treatment
4. Sex Offender Assessments and Treatment
5. Restitution and Community Service
6. Parent/Family Skills Building
7. Teen Court
8. Vocational Development (13-18 years)
9. Interpersonal Skill Building

Local public agencies, non-profit agencies, non-profit corporations and local housing authorities whose applications meet the funding criteria need to be prepared to make a (10) minute presentation to the JCPC. Applicants will be contacted and informed of the schedule for presentations.

Further information and technical assistance will be provided if needed. You may also contact your DJJDP area office by calling Rich Smith at 704-788-2941ext. 26, or Kecia Barnes, local Chief Court Counselor, at 704-639-7515.

This the 14th day of February 2011.

Peggy Whitley

Peggy Whitley
JCPC Secretary