FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Does it cost any money to use Gale Courses?

Nope--it is free to enroll using your Rowan Public Library card. If you enrolled for these courses on your own, they would cost you $70+.

Are any of the courses offered in-person?

All Gale Courses are offered online.

Are assignments and quizzes part of my grade?

You do not receive a grade for work done through Gale Courses. Successful completion of the course is based on a passing score on the final exam, which is multiple choice and open-note.

How long does each course last?

Courses follow a six-week format.

Is there a limit on how many courses I can take?

You are limited only by your own schedule.

Will my course count as college credit?

No, Gale Courses are considered continuing education and do not count for traditional college credit.
