

Join the Friends of Rowan Public Library for a Road Trip to Abingdon, VA
June 1-3, 2012

Friday, June 1

We'll leave RPL at 8:00 and travel to Abingdon.

We'll get oriented to Abingdon on arrival, and you will have time to have lunch on your own and explore the city's shops and museums. Later in the afternoon, we will check in at the Quality Inn. We will enjoy the seafood buffet at Heartwood, SW Virginia's Artisan Gateway, before claiming our seats at the iconic Barter Theatre for the comedy "Red Velvet Cake War."

Saturday, June 2

After breakfast, we'll tour White's Mill, an historic working grist mill which dates from the late 18th century. Back in Abingdon, there will be time to see more of the city before regrouping for a backstage tour of the Barter Theatre before lunch. After lunch on your own (perhaps at the Barter Café) we will enjoy "Looking Over the President's Shoulder," a one-man show based on the experiences of Alonzo Fields, who served as a butler in the White House during four presidential administrations. After the play, we will take a scenic drive to Hiltons, VA and the Carter Family Fold, dedicated to the preservation and performance of traditional American music. The Carter family museum and A. P. Carter's cabin may be toured for a donation. Dinner (on your own) is available on site, and includes local food made from both traditional and Carter family recipes. After dinner, we will enjoy old time music as performed by Wayne Henderson and Friends (with Jeff Little).

Sunday, June 3

We'll have breakfast at the Quality Inn before leaving Abingdon for our drive home.
