Rowan County Public Health Department Coordinates with Liberty Commons Nursing and Rehabilitation Center for Protective Actions

Liberty Commons Nursing and Rehabilitation Center of Rowan County received confirmation that 2 of their staff members have been diagnosed with COVID-19. These employees were sent home immediately. Tests for COVID-19 have also been administered to all residents and are waiting test results. A public health communicable disease nurse and an environmental health specialist have already conducted a site visit and report that the facility is adhering to current guidelines and recommendations. Liberty Commons reports that they have notified all staff and residents, or their family members, of the positive tests.
