

ROWAN PUBLIC LIBRARY

MEETING ROOM GUIDELINES

Effective May 12, 2006, revised 7/28/2017, 9/1/2021

We are happy to provide a meeting room for your group's use. Below are procedures and guidelines to help you reserve a meeting room and plan your meeting.

- Completed Application and Agreement for Use of Meeting Rooms form must be submitted within 72 hours of a reservation request (5 days if by mail). If the completed and signed application is not received within this time frame, reservation(s) will be cancelled.
- Meeting spaces may be reserved a maximum of twice per month, and twenty-four times per year, system wide, for any one group. Reservations may be made six (6) months in advance.
- Your meeting must be scheduled to end 15 minutes before the library closes.
- Projectors, screens, easels, and various audiovisual equipment may be available depending on the meeting room reserved. Any requests for presentation equipment should be listed on your Application and Agreement for Use of Meeting Rooms.
- Restrooms and water fountains are available near meeting rooms.
- Parking is available in library parking lots only.
- Persons attending meetings are to enter and exit the library's main entrances.
- You may not prop open exterior doors. Contact library staff to request a door be unlocked for your meeting. Library staff may remain in the area of unlocked doors to monitor use.
- Tables and chairs may be arranged in any manner you choose. Additional tables and chairs may be in storage areas adjacent to the room. Tables and chairs should be kept in the meeting room to which they belong. The library is not able to provide help setting up meeting rooms.
- Your group is responsible for cleaning the meeting room and/or kitchen after use, removing all items you brought, and disposing of trash and recyclables in available receptacles. A fee may be assessed for cleaning services if the meeting room and kitchen are not left clean.
- Meeting rooms may not be used for individual or family private social functions.
- Meeting rooms are available for non-profit use only and may not be used by individuals or businesses to promote or advertise services or memberships, or sell products, services, or memberships; or conduct any for-profit related activity or information distribution at meetings; with the exception that non-profit clubs may collect dues or sell items, such as collectibles, among club members only.
- Alcoholic beverages and tobacco products are prohibited in library facilities and on county property.
- The library may have personnel observe meetings in progress and monitor exterior doors.
- Attendance must be recorded on the Meeting Room Register sheet located inside the meeting room. This statistic helps the library show room usage, support funding requests and justify meeting room maintenance costs. Failure to provide this information can result in loss of meeting room use.

ROWAN PUBLIC LIBRARY PUBLIC USE OF LIBRARY MEETING ROOMS POLICY

Adopted October 29, 1986 by Rowan Public Library Board of Trustees, revised 7/28/2017, 08/25/2021

Service Objective

As a service to the community, the Rowan Public Library provides meeting rooms for the lawful activities of groups and individuals as well as for library-sponsored activities. In accord with the LIBRARY BILL OF RIGHTS, to which this library subscribes, the library will make the meeting rooms "available on an equitable basis, regardless of the beliefs or affiliations of individuals or groups requesting their use". Permission to use a library meeting room is not an endorsement by library staff or Rowan Public Library Board of Trustees of the user or user's belief.

Eligibility Requirements

1. All groups and individuals are eligible to use library meeting rooms, except those whose activities:
 - a. would tend to incite or produce imminent lawless action
 - b. would tend to be disruptive of other library functions
 - c. are obscene
 - d. are obviously promoting false and misleading information
 - e. are defamatory
 - f. are purely commercial in nature
2. Further use of library meeting rooms may be denied to groups or individuals who violate these policies or other applicable laws, regulations, and procedures.
3. Further use of meeting rooms may be denied to groups or individuals who fail to cancel reservations, thereby depriving other eligible groups and individuals from utilizing meeting rooms.
4. The Library Director is authorized to make decisions regarding the eligibility of groups or individuals to use library meeting rooms. Decisions may be appealed to the RPL Board of Trustees for review. The decisions of the RPL Board of Trustees shall be final.
5. An adult representative (a person at least 18 years of age) of the group or individuals planning to use a meeting room must complete the APPLICATION AND AGREEMENT FOR USE OF MEETING ROOMS prior to the meeting.

Frequency of Use

1. In providing this service, an effort shall be made to insure the greatest number of people will be able to utilize meeting rooms to the greatest extent possible. To this end, frequency of use of meeting rooms may vary according to the needs of the local community.
2. Groups and individuals shall be limited to such number and times of meeting as shall not pre-empt the use of the meeting room to the extent of:
 - a. materially interfering with basic and primary library functions
 - b. depriving other eligible groups or individuals from using meeting rooms at reasonable intervals and on reasonable occasions.
 - c. Meeting rooms may be reserved a maximum of twice per month, and twenty-four times per year, system wide, for any one group.
3. Reservations may be made six (6) months in advance beginning with the first day of the current month.

User Responsibilities

1. Users are subject to all applicable library policies and procedures.
2. Users shall conduct themselves in a manner which will not disrupt the use of the library by others.
3. Users shall be responsible for leaving the meeting room in a clean and orderly condition.
4. Users shall be responsible for personal materials and/or equipment which are left in the meeting room.
5. Upon request, users shall provide handout literature, materials to be exhibited, promotional materials and press releases to the Library Director or Branch Supervisor.

6. Upon signing the APPLICATION AND AGREEMENT FOR USE OF MEETING ROOMS, the representative of the users shall assume personal responsibility for:
 - a. The conduct and behavior of persons attending the meeting when necessary.
 - b. Providing the number of persons in attendance to the library in a timely manner.
 - c. Payment for any damage to library property resulting from the meeting.
 - d. Payment for any special cleaning services resulting from the meeting.
7. Users shall notify the library as soon as practicable if they need to cancel a reservation.

Restrictions on the Use of Meeting Rooms

1. Meeting rooms may not be used for an individual or family's private social function.
2. Alcoholic beverages are prohibited.
3. Use of tobacco products is prohibited.
4. The library reserves the right to limit attendance based on space available and safety regulations.
5. The library reserves the right to have personnel observe meeting room use in progress.
6. Individuals or groups shall not charge admission, or promote or advertise services or memberships, or sell products, services, or memberships; or conduct any for-profit related activity or information distribution at meetings; with the exception that non-profit clubs may collect dues or sell club items, such as collectibles, among club members only, and with the exception of recovering meeting expenses such as meals or work materials.
