This job description supersedes any prior description for the Child Support Supervisor II classification.

GENERAL DESCRIPTION

Responsible administrative and supervisory work involving the enforcement of child support orders, locating absent parents, and establishing paternity.

Work is circumscribed by a variety of federal and state laws, policies, and regulations in which there is opportunity for independent judgment and initiative within restrictions. Supervision is given to a staff of paraprofessional Child Support Agents and clerical personnel. Supervision is received from the Social Services Program Administrator I.

ESSENTIAL JOB FUNCTIONS (Any one position may not include all of the duties listed, nor do the listed examples include all tasks which may be found in positions of this class.)

Completes time records, phone logs, and other administrative accounting documents.

Participates in the recruitment and interviewing of staff and makes recommendations for hire and termination of employees in the Child Support Unit that is given particular weight by the Social Services Director.

Organizes staff, formulates and assigns responsibilities and annual workloads to staff based on analysis of performance data, assessment of skills, unit goals, and projected impacts of policy changes.

Performs periodic performance reviews with staff to measure performances in terms of goals, objectives, and overall professional conduct. Implements disciplinary/corrective actions as necessary.

Approves leave of staff and arranges for workload coverage as required.

Responds to day-to-day questions relative to the application of State program policies and case situations.

Meets with State Consultants to secure and clarify information. Drafts correspondences to legislators and state officials concerning policies.

Serves as liaison with other agencies such as the court system, law enforcement, business establishments and other agencies relative to the program area.

Establishes and maintains a method of monitoring work in the Unit to insure accuracy and timely completion of case work by random caseload audits and daily reviews of records and caseloads.

Responds to inquires and complaints in relation to the Unit; provides consultation and technical assistance to the staff in preparing for reviews by consultants and/or appeals to the State Hearing Officer.

Regulates the process of arrears calculations and interpretations to allow for appropriate crediting to accounts and distribution of child support payments.
